The Con H. Biedermann Humanitarian Award is given in memory of Con Biedermann, a founder and past president of the Wyoming Trucking Association Inc., as a tribute to his outstanding service to his fellowman, his industry and his country.

The award is to recognize individuals who, from a sense of duty to society and their fellowmen, and without gain except for personal satisfaction, have volunteered their time, talents and efforts toward the improvement of their community, county, state or industry.

Eligibility: any owner, part owner, or officer of a Wyoming Trucking Association, Inc. member firm, or employee of such firm, is eligible.
